

Kaye Wilkinson–Green Civil Celebrant

At your loved one's final service, if sensitive listening, commemoration, a celebration of their life and an authentic reflection of their character are what you desire...

I am a trained funeral celebrant, professional presenter and writer, who positively supports the grief process of family and friends.... so they can embrace the final goodbye.

P

Personalised ceremony...your loved one will be honoured and respected uniquely with the perfect words and stories to connect and enrich family, friends and colleagues.

E

Eulogist: I use your expressions, thoughts, words and feeling to truly eulogise your loved one's life ... simply or comprehensively... from beginning to end.

A

Authentic representation of your loved one, true to character, individual, real... and a ceremony based on the values and wishes of the family.

C

Compassion ... I listen, care, and value your trust and confidence at this very vulnerable time.

E

Enduring memories of your loved one and their farewell ceremony ... will live in the hearts of all present Forever.

Testimonials

*'The fact that you composed such a lovely eulogy about the real Stephen from just talking to a few people about him was amazing. I think our talk about Stephen with you also helped myself, Dianne and Audrey'. Sandra.

*'There were many comments among the mourners afterwards about the professionalism and finesse you brought to the service so effortlessly. Your words were just right and your calming presence was very supportive and reassuring'. Raymond.

*'Our special appreciation to Kaye Wilkinson-Green who conducted a most caring, personal eulogy and service and helped guide us through a difficult time.' Kruse family.

If you need my help, just ask for me by name or contact me directly on;

0438 336 049 or email kayewilkgreen@bigpond.com

